

WELLS IS IN THE LEAD IN FIGHT.

REPUBLICAN NOMINEE SEEMS TO HAVE THE BEST OF THE BATTLE.

MUCH INTEREST IN THE ELECTION.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 1.—Local political feeling is at fever heat and every public place is the theater of animated and sometimes acrimonious debate. As the election takes place next Tuesday the campaign is virtually ended. It will formally close tomorrow night.

While the situation is very much mixed, the surface indications, as shown by the betting and street talk, presage the election of Asa R. Wells, the Republican candidate for Mayor. Apparently it will be close between Wells, the Democrat, and Schmitz, the Labor Candidate, for second place. It is the general opinion among veteran politicians that Wells will have a decided plurality. As to the other candidates the outlook is chaotic, with a few exceptions. Lackmann for Sheriff, Fisk for District Attorney, and Mahoney for County Clerk, all Republican nominees, are regarded as sure winners. The chances are also very much in favor of Harry Bach, the Republican candidate for Auditor, although he is pitted against such a seasoned and popular politician as John H. Wise.

Frank Lane, the Democratic nominee for County Attorney, has a good deal the best of it, and Godschalk, on the same ticket, has a fair show, but the prospects favor the other Republican candidates.

But the main interest is centered on the Mayor's race, and the fight for minor positions is obscured by the fury with which the partisans of the three leading candidates are making their campaign. Wells has been perceptibly gaining for several days, as certain events have caused a slump from both the other candidates to him. His forces are the best organized and the most compact, and his fight is being handled by the most astute politicians in the State.

The vote will not be over 50,000, apparently, and may fall below it. The smaller the vote the better for Wells and the worse for Tobin.

Indications point to the election of a mixed Board of Supervisors. Probably all the parties will have representatives in that body. It is difficult to conjecture how the various candidates will come out.

The Republican managers are secure and confident of electing the bulk of their ticket, including the Mayor.

ANDREW CARNEGIE HAS BEEN HONORED.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—Andrew Carnegie was formally named for the Lord Rectorship of St. Andrew's University. There were no other nominations. Mr. Carnegie's election will be declared by the Vice-Chancellor November 2nd.

NEW DEAL FOR THE OAKLAND TRANSIT MEN

General Manager Kelley of the Oakland Transit Company has returned from the East with some new ideas.

He has recommended to the directors of the company some large improvements. Mr. Kelley has recommended that the Transit Company secure the possession of the Athenian Club rooms on Fourteenth street as soon as that organization moves into its new quarters at Thirteenth and Franklin streets.

Mr. Kelley recommends that the general offices of the company be placed in the new building and that club rooms for the men on the road also be established in the building. In other words, Mr. Kelley wants a general headquarters for the company.

The directors will soon take up his recommendations.

TESTIMONY WILL END MONDAY.

SCHLEY WILL CORRECT HIS EVIDENCE AND THE CASE WILL END.

LITTLE TESTIMONY AT HEARING TODAY.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—The Schley Court of Inquiry began its proceedings today with the understanding that with the exception of some witnesses who will be called to correct their testimony on Monday, most of the testimony would be taken before adjournment. There were only two witnesses on the list for today, and the understanding when the court opened was that after they should be heard, the court would adjourn until Monday next.

The witnesses called for today were both summoned by the Department. John Hood, who commanded the dispatch boat Hawk during the Cuban campaign, was summoned for the purpose of relating his version of his interview with Admiral Schley of Cienfuegos. Sylvester Scovel was called to answer questions concerning the message which Captain Sigsbee of the St. Paul is said to have telegraphed to the press boat Somers N. Smith on May 28. Photographer Hare testified that at that time Captain Sigsbee stated that the Spanish fleet was not in the harbor of Santiago, and gave the name of Mr. Scovel as one of the correspondents on board the press boat with himself at that time.

Admiral Schley was in the court room half an hour before proceedings began, but he announced that he would not be able to undertake the correction of his testimony before next week.

"There were five whole days of it," he said, "and to go over it and make the necessary corrections is no light task."

It is probable that he will have some time to say concerning his interview of May 15th, with Admiral Sampson, relative to which Captain Chadwick spoke yesterday.

It is not intended to call any witnesses in rebuttal, and it is expected that the argument will begin soon after Admiral Schley concludes the correction of his testimony. How long the court may take to consider the evidence is entirely uncalculable. The members of the tribunal are evidently preparing to devote considerable time to the consideration of the testimony for they have taken rooms in the city for this purpose. The testimony covers 1,000 printed pages, and the court spent three or four days in discussing it. With the additions yet to be made in the way of arguments and documents the record will probably run over 1,500 pages.

"Mr. Scovel" asked Mr. Bayner, "are you prepared to say on your oath that no one in your boat asked Captain Sigsbee whether Cervera was in the harbor of Santiago?"

"It is possible," was the reply, "that a conversation might have taken place on the part of some one else, but as the St. Paul was a small boat and as conversation must necessarily have been in a loud tone, I think I would have heard it if there had been any."

"Are you then prepared to say that the testimony of Mr. Hare in which he said that Captain Sigsbee had said that the Spanish fleet was not in the harbor of Santiago was not at Santiago?"

"No, I am not prepared to say that his statement is false, and that no such conversation took place, but I can swear that nothing of the kind was said while I was conducting the conversation and I conducted the principal part of it."

Mr. Scovel was then excused and a number of the witnesses of yesterday were called for the purpose of making corrections in their testimony.

No announcement was made as to the length of time the purchase is to continue.

NEWSPAPER MEN ARE BROUGHT INTO COURT

*****

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—Judge Haney today held officers of the Chicago American in bonds to appear before the court next Monday to show cause why they should not be punished for alleged contempt of court. Bail was fixed as follows:

S. S. Carvalho, general manager, and Andrew M. Lawrence, managing editor, $10,000 each; H. E. Canfield, reporter, $5,000, and John C. S. Hammond, assistant city editor, $1,000.

Former Governor Algood, counsel for the newspaper men, explained to the court that W. B. Hearst, Homer Davenport and Clara Briggs, also accused of contempt through articles, editorials and cartoons printed in connection with the People's Gaslight and Coke Company's case, were out of the State.

PAGEANT IN HONOR OF DUKE.

*****

KING EDWARD WELCOMES HIS SON BACK TO OLD ENGLAND.

*****

PORTSMOUTH, Eng., Nov. 1.—Today's naval pageant in honor of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York was almost a reproduction of the ceremonial attending their departure. The town and harbor were astir early. Immense crowds assembled along the sea front and rounds of cheers mingled with the national anthem and salutes from the harbor ships and land batteries as the royal yacht Victoria and Albert steamed to meet the Ophir. On board the royal yacht the King, in the uniform of an admiral, stood on the after bridge during the salute, while the Queen and the children of the Duke and Duchess paraded the hurricane deck. The roads presented a striking spectacle, owing to the great gathering of the warships, dressed from stern to stern, and with their yards manned and their sides lined with their crews. Nelson's old flagship, the Victory, started the salute to their majesties, and each ship took it up in turn as the Victoria and Albert moved down the solent, accompanied by a flotilla of older royal yachts.

Off Yarmouth, Isle of Wight, the Victoria and Albert and the Ophir met and exchanged signals of greeting.

About 2 o'clock the booming of distant guns signaled the approach of the royal vessels and the naval procession soon hove in sight, with the Trinity house yacht Irons acting as pilot. She was followed by the Victoria and Albert, the Ophir and two ironclads. Guns were fired, bands played and crowds cheered as the vessels passed down the lines of the fleet. As the Victoria and Albert neared the harbor the troops ashore presented arms and the garrison battery fired a final salute. The bands everywhere struck up "God Save the King," and thousands of blue jackets on board ships in the harbor repeatedly cheered the royal party.

The demonstrations were renewed as the Ophir entered with her band playing Home, Sweet Home. The harbor of the thousands of people lining the harbor.

Immediately after the Victoria and Albert and the Ophir were moored at the jetty, the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York joined their majesties and the children on board the former yacht.

THE REPORT THAT CAILLARD'S FLEET HAD RETURNED PROVES INCORRECT.

PARIS, Nov. 1.—The dispatch from Toulon announcing the return of Admiral Caillaud's division of the French Mediterranean squadron to that port proves to be incorrect. The officials of the Foreign Office today informed the Associated Press that the fleet had not returned and that the facts set forth in these dispatches yesterday are correct. The Admiral is now on his way to Turkish waters.

The incorrect announcement from Toulon of the return of Admiral Caillaud's division, which created a great sensation, emanated from the correspondent of a well-known news agency. The explanation is that Admiral Magre, commander of the Mediterranean fleet, returned to Toulon at 7 o'clock yesterday with all his vessels except those belonging to Admiral Caillaud's division. The correspondent of the news agency referred to miscounted the vessels owing to the darkness. A corrected list of Caillaud's ships is now published. The list stated yesterday was that of his ordinary light vision, but it appears that a special squadron was formed, composed of the battleships Gaulois and Charlemagne, the cruisers Admiral Fournier, Chaney and Gallie, and two torpedo boat destroyers of the Malabar type.

PRISONER GAVE WAY IN COURT.

One of the Cudahy Kidnapers Collapsed Before a Jury This Morning.

OMAHA, Nov. 1.—James Callahan, on trial for perjury in the Cudahy kidnaping case, gave way this morning to the nervous strain under which he has labored, and had to be removed from the court and the session adjourned. The prisoner has lost considerably in flesh, and the strain has brought his nervous system almost to the point of collapse.

Young Cudahy continued his narrative of the kidnaping today, going over the entire case. The defense, on cross-examination, tried to show that the boy was addicted to excessive cigarette smoking and was therefore unable to give a clear version of the kidnaping. Chief Donahue swore to Callahan's arrest and the statement that he could prove an alibi. Court then adjourned until 2 o'clock tomorrow.

MINISTER MADE BAD MISTAKE.

RECALLED BY PORTUGAL BECAUSE HE SENT PREMATURE REPORT.

LISBON, Nov. 1.—Senor Hota Machado has been appointed Portuguese Minister at Washington.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Shortly after the death of President McKinley, the Viscount Du Santo-Thyrs, Portuguese Minister to the United States, was summoned to Lisbon. According to M. Louis Augusto de Maura Pinto D'Azendo Taveira, at present chargé d'affaires of Portugal in this city, the Viscount was not made aware of the purposes of his summons to the Portuguese capital. M. Taveira said today, further than this he knows nothing in regard to the report that the Viscount's removal to Portugal had to do with a premature announcement of the death of President McKinley. When asked whether an error of this sort by a diplomatic report would be regarded as sufficient ground for his recall, M. Taveira says that it all depended on the temper of the government in question. The State Department expressed immediately and surprise when told of the appointment of a new Minister from Portugal, especially of the allegation that the change was made because of a premature announcement of President McKinley's death by Santo Thyrs. This was the first news that had been received that such a change had been made. They were quite sure that so far as the United States Government was concerned, it had not been embarrassed by any act of the former Minister, for the records of condolences received at the Department disclose the fact that Portugal conformed closely to the rules observed by the other nations of the world.

C. P. GORDON RECEIVES INJURIES WHICH SOON PROVE FATAL.

*****

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 1.—Cuthbert P. Gordon, cashier of the insurance firm of Christensen, Edwards & Goodwin, fell from the window of his room at the Cosmos Club this morning and was injured so that he died a few moments later.

It is said by those who have been intimately acquainted with Mr. Gordon that he was subject to heart disease. The condition of the room indicated that he had made an effort to raise the window.

To do so it was necessary to move a table which was placed in front of the window, and it is believed while so engaged that Mr. Gordon was overcome by dizziness and fell out of the window, which he had succeeded in partially raising.

The dead man is well spoken of by his employers. He retired early last evening, as he was feeling unwell.

LARGE LOSS BY FIRE AT UNIONTOWN.

CHAIRMAN MITCHELL MEETS WITH ACCIDENT

John Mitchell, chairman of the Board of Supervisors, met with a slight accident yesterday which will confine him to his home for some days. While riding on the Haywards car near High street a blind horse running loose with a head of horses dashed into the car. Mr. Mitchell's foot was caught between the horse's shoulder and the car and badly bruised. The wound is not serious, but it is sufficient to cause Mr. Mitchell to remain in the house for several days.

POLICE COURT.

Crooks as executor of the estate of Jackson J. Crooks, deceased. The mortgage was on realty at the corner of Nineteenth avenue and East Seventeenth street to secure a loan of $5,000.

PLEASANTON RACES DRAW A LARGE CROWD FROM THE COUNTY

EXCELLENT SHOWING MADE BY THE PUBLIC SPIRITED CITIZENS OF THE COUNTRY TOWN — PRIZE STOCK IS ON EXHIBITION.

PLEASANTON, Nov. 1.—Pleasanton today is full of visitors, all lovers of fleet horses. On every side the subject is "horse" and the records which horses have achieved, and, more especially, the records of horses which Pleasanton has sent forth and which were the marvel of the turf.

PLEASANTON'S GLORY.

The glory of the town as a training center has not departed. It lives in the memory of those who recall what has been done on the race course in this city and the men who did it, and this meeting has been gotten up for the purpose of keeping alive the industry which has done so much for this little place and for the development of fast horses in all parts of the world.

GALA ATTIRE.

The stores and private residences are gaily decorated with bunting and the national colors wave gracefully from many points of vantage in various parts of the business district.

THE PEOPLE.

Thousands of people have come from all the surrounding towns not alone in Alameda county but in other neighboring counties, the visitors from San Francisco filling several cars. There is also a strong contingent from Oakland, and in it are a number of the best known business men who have come to show their appreciation of the enterprise of this bustling place which, in only a few hours, could raise a purse of $1,500 to induce the owners of fleet horses to bring them here to struggle for the mastery.

PLEASANTON PROUD.

Local people are enthusiastically over this achievement, claiming that there are few towns of the size of Pleasanton in this section which could so easily accomplish such a result.

WANT TO TALK.

At the hour at which this is written, there has been no move made toward the race track. The visitors seem disposed to indulge in a grand reunion, greet one another warmly, talk old days over and recount the glory of the horses and the men, many of whom have departed forever.

J. H. NEAL.

One of the most noted of the men who were connected with the Pleasanton training track is J. H. Neal, a man who knew as much about horses as most of the people who achieved meteoric success. He, unfortunately, secured little glory but he was with Salisbury for ten years, from 1887 to 1897, when the track at Pleasanton was a place to bank on. Neal had the pleasure of riding behind many of the great steeds while they were being schooled for the world's fame and he had no small amount of work to do either because he was Salisbury's superintendent and not only had to be to him for the fitness which many of the horses acquired. He never rides behind a speeding horse now. He always liked the best but he cannot sit behind an animal now of indifferent mettle after having followed Direct, Flying Jib and others of that noted band of flyers of other days.

PARK'S GREAT WORK.

The training park at this place has been in existence for the better part of two generations. The list of horses which it has graduated would fill a volume. From these, it is impossible to recall all who have been enrolled among equine wonders.

STARS OF THE COURSE.

In reminiscent mood, however, Mr. Neal recalls a few, and the record credited to them and among these may be mentioned: Vito, 1:21; J. A. McKeen, 2:07 3/4; Lena, 2:04 1/2; Skatshlight, 2:03 3/4; Anacosta, 2:01 3/4; Klatsawah, 2:05 1/2; Dione, 2:00 1/4; Dolly Dillon, 2:07 1/4; Jamie, 2:00 1/2; Bonnie Direct, 2:00; Roy Direct, 2:01; Diablo, 2:00 1/4; Direct, 2:05 1/2; Margaret S., 2:12; Homestake, 2:14; Vic H., 2:13 1/4; Little Albert, 2:10; Flying Jib, 1:58 1/4; Cricket, 2:10; Directum, 2:01 1/4; Alie, 2:14; and 2:09. Direct, 2:03 3/4. These names will recast remembrance to those who have followed the career of the stars.

GREAT IN THE SULKY.

Those, however, may not be called to mind without suggesting a thought at least of the great men who were, in the main, to be credited with their achievements. Among these lovers of the horse were Salisbury, Tom Keating, A. McDowell, George Stuart, John Kelly, M. Sanders, O. A. Hukok, M. A. Molteny and many others.

MONEY WON.

The money won by these men, in the distribution of which this town shared, is well known, is incalculable. Tom

SEASONABLE HINTS.

Guard Your Health in Fall and Early Winter.

A change from warm to cold is always attended with more danger than from a cold to a warm temperature, hence the greater mortality from lung and throat diseases at this season of the year as compared with spring.

The best protection against colds is not so much in extra clothing as in good digestion.

If the digestion and circulation are good, colds will be unknown.

Poor digestion causes poor circulation of the blood and when in this condition severe colds are contracted on the slightest provocation.

People who make a regular practice of taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals are free from colds, simply because their digestion is perfect, the heart strong and regular, and the whole system fortified against disease.

It requires little argument to convince anyone that the best safeguard against colds, pneumonia and changes of temperature is a good stomach. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, taken after meals, assist in the digestion of the food, cause it to be promptly digested and assimilated; they do this because they contain nothing but harmless digestive elements, which digest meat, eggs and other food even when the stomach itself is weak and flaccid.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets make people well and keep them well, and the best habit you can acquire is to keep daily use of them at meals to make the digestive organs strong and vigorous.

Keating alone, at the very lowest estimate, pulled down $75,000, while Salisbury never pocketed a cent less than $500,000. To say how much the other celebrities garnered would be to count the blades of grass on sodded paddock.

THE RACE TODAY.

Today, the same track that made these men and fortunes possible is filled with promising yearlings. It is known as the Pleasanton Training Track, is owned by a man named Anderson and is under the management of Harris & Donahue. It has 150 stalls, conveniences of all kinds for horses, and is, at the same time, the finest mile track perhaps in the world. The track lined up is being perpetuated and the present year will see other marvels of equine fleetness take their places among the fast animals of the world.

LOOKING FOR COIN.

With the influx of strangers has come a pack of gamblers who have various devices for gaming. These are scattered at various places through town, but nothing is allowed on the race course except an auction pool, the net being included in the prohibition. The auction pool is in charge of Fred H. Chase of San Francisco.

RECEIVING GUESTS.

The various trains as they arrive are met by a delegation of citizens and the Pleasanton band, under the leadership of Dick Foley. Foley has served his country in the Spanish war and got wounded in Cuba. He is now, however, as good as a stranger, he was before he was injured, and has made an excellent musical organization out of the players associated with him. The organization was to have appeared today in new uniforms, but the delay of a Chicago tailor has compelled them to appear in their old habiliments.

LIVERMORE IN VIEW.

Just before the throng started for the race course, "Livermore" made its appearance. By this town is meant a very large proportion of the people of the neighboring town. They came on horseback, in vehicles of all kinds, and acted like juveniles enjoying a day's holiday. They said they had chased up their places of business and had come to show their appreciation of their sister city. They were warmly welcomed by the Pleasantonians, who had provided refreshments for them in a liberal manner.

MIST LODGE IN LIVERMORE.

Tonight, when they return home, they will be accompanied by a throng of strangers who will be carried to Livermore in vehicles which are provided by the people of this city to enable the overflow of guests to find shelter for the night. Such a commensuration is out of the question in this city, because the streets, the homes, the hotels, and indeed, the other hotels, are filled to excess. People are to sleep on cots in hallways and in rooms in private houses, and a number of the guests of less conventional habits, in sequestered hay stacks. By means of this bazaar, which will take place tonight, the Livermore hostesses will be filled, the guests returning to this place tomorrow to witness the features of the closing day.

RACE COURSE FEATURES.

The accommodations at the race course for entertaining the people are excellent. A new grandstand and stand having been erected. There is an efficient corps of deputy marshals on hand under the leadership of Marshal Head, but no exercise of their authority is anticipated, because everybody seems to be void of an ambition to wake up in the lock-up.

THE JUDGES.

The management concluded to keep the knowledge as to the identity of the judges of the races a secret till the last moment, partly because it was not sure that it could secure the consent of the men whom it would prefer to act, and partly because all the men it had in view were known to oppose having their names unnecessarily put in print. At this writing, the gentlemen whom the management wished to secure, as judges are Colonel Kirkpatrick of the Palace Hotel, San Francisco; Judge Greene of Oakland and Captain Goodell, also of Oakland. If these, Judge Greene has stated that he will act as one of the judges if he shall be able to attend. J. H. Neal will act as assistant secretary.

TONIGHT'S DANCE.

Tonight there will be a grand ball in Nevis' Pavilion, to which the price of admission will be $5.00 per couple. This is the last of the series of dances at the Nevis, which is to be served by Frank Tillman, the bustling and pudsaking proprietor of the Rose Hotel. The music will be furnished by the Larrabee Orchestra of Oakland. It is expected that there will be at least 300 couples in attendance.

RUNNING ENTRIES.

THE TRIBUNE of yesterday published all the race entries known up to that time. Last night, the entries for running race of one-half mile and repeat were made as follows:

Little D., black mare, sire Little Mindoo, dam Banda, entered by P. Venable.

HOW CASEY AT THE BAT CAME TO BE WRITTEN.

A REMINISCENCE OF THE BASEBALL GAME IN WHICH PATSY CAHILL, THE WELL-KNOWN OAKLANDER, MADE A MEMORABLE HIT AND SAVED THE DAY.

"CASEY AT THE BAT" is dead. Every baseball fan knows the poem and catches the rich humor of the climax when "Casey has struck out."

Well, John Patrick Farnham, who died at his home here yesterday of consumption, was the original Casey of the comic poem, but oddly enough, the inspiration of that poem was not a strike out, but a feat that sent the ball at a critical moment clear over the fence at the old Haight street grounds more than a dozen years ago.

Cahill was a short, pudgy chap, with a jolly mug and a comical glance of his eye. He used to play with the old Greenhood & Moran's who became the Oakland nine of the old California League. Whenever he took the bat it was the signal for all the bleachers to shout. Cahill was a popular player, but mighty "onsant" about hitting the ball. Bunting was not his strong suit. His best work was in the field.

When a picked nine of Eastern players came out here with the ten thousand dollar "Boston Beauty," at their head, to play the cracks of the California League during a winter season, Patsy Cahill was a member of the nine that gave them the first taste of California ball playing.

There was an immense crowd at the Haight street grounds that day, and the California boys put up a great game. At first, the Eastern men played with careless ease as if they felt they had a sure thing, but as the game progressed they found they had their hands full.

But the California men could not score, although they kept their opponents from doing so. The end came with Patsy Cahill (Casey) at the bat, and a great day it was for California. It was the last half of the ninth inning. The Boston Beauty's men had two runs to their credit, while the Californians had stacked up a row of zeroes. The bases were full, with two men out, when Patsy came to the bat. Everybody knew his uncertainty with the willow. The spectators felt their hearts sink, although a cheerful shout of encouragement went up from the bleachers.

"One strike!" called the umpire. "Two strikes!" and the hearts of the crowd began to grow faint. Patsy jammed the end of his stick in the sand and took a firmer grip. He smote the ball like he wielded the club of Hercules. It went flying over the fence. Patsy made a home run and brought all the bases in. The game was won. What a cheer went up! Patsy was a hero, for he had saved the day for California when everybody expected him to strike out.

Watching the game was a young man on the Examiner who had poetic talent and the gift of humor. The situation caught his fancy and inspired him to write "Casey at the Bat," which is a baseball classic to this day, although the author has long since left his eternal rest. He was compelled to sacrifice the heroic culmination to the excitement of the game.

CITY COUNCILMAN HEAR MANY PETITIONS AND LISTEN TO PROTESTS

OAKLAND TRANSIT CO. ORDERED TO RUN ITS CARS TO FIRST STREET. AGAIN HEARD AND PROTESTS ENTERED.

At a meeting of the City Council last night there were present Councilmen Bon, Courtney, Cuvellier, Dornin, Fitzgerald, Ruch, Wallace, Wikson and President Schaffer.

The entire matter of procuring a site for the erection of a hospital for the care of contagious diseases was referred to the Special Committee for a report.

A communication from a number of business men, urging the Council to take immediate action in the obtaining of a suitable post-house site for the good of the city was read and placed on file. It was signed by Tatt & Penoyer, C. J. Heesman, W. B. Standford, E. J. Saake, and one hundred others.

A communication from R. A. Jackson, on behalf of E. W. Morrison, offering the first proposed site on Millbury and Spring streets for $1,500 was read and referred to the Hospital Committee. The previous price was $1,750.

Ed Newland protested against the hospital being erected near his wife's property.

L. G. Harney, the real estate man, protested against the establishment of the hospital on the corner of York and Prince streets saying that it would give all improvements in that direction a black eye. Wikson stated that if the Council released the options they now had on two sites, they might not get another. He therefore moved that the resolution rejecting the site on Spring and Millbury streets and accepting the site on the corner of York and Prince streets be referred to the Special Hospital Committee.

ROUTINE MATTERS.
Mrs. D. W. Pratt was granted permission to remove two locust trees in front of her premises at 2028 Market street.

The following liquor license bonds were approved: Beckert & Keese, 17.0 Seventh street; N. Gallagher, 505 Twenty-fifth street; J. P. Charpie, 1149 Stanford avenue.

G. E. This winter unless the sewer was replaced. The Committee after listening to what Alken had to say recommended the re-laying of the sewer, and the macadamizing of the western side of the street within the boundaries mentioned, at a cost not to exceed $200. The entire street would be macadamized, but for litigation which at present prevents the cloud over the title on half of the street.

NO DEPUTIES FOR TAYLOR.
The Ordinance and Judiciary Committee laid the communication of City Treasurer Felson Taylor requesting the appointment of an additional deputy for his office over four months.

The ordinance appointing two additional deputy tax collectors was also laid over four months. This leaves Taylor without any deputies to enforce the collection of the sign-tax ordinance and other revenue ordinances passed by the Council.

NEWS NOTES FROM THE SUPERIOR COURT.

An amended answer has been filed in the case of J. J. Rauer as assignee of G. A. Bishop against Joseph Carbone and William Halp. It consists of a general denial of the complaint.

The estate of Josephine E. Blaw has been appraised at $10,874.

A citation has been issued to Mrs. E. Crosby and the matron of the West Oakland Home to show cause why Eliza Swift should not be appointed guardian of the person and estate of the minor.

George B. Starr and Frank H. Winslow, trustees of the estate of the late Lewis M. Starr, have petitioned the court for approval of their sale of a part of the realty of the estate consisting of a lot located in the city of Oakland, near the intersection of the line of Lake street ninety feet east of Madison street. The purchaser is George B. M. Gray. The price is $6,775.

The property was originally sold to Gray for $6,000. When the sale came before the court for approval, the sale was not approved, higher bids having in the meantime been received, the highest being that of Gray for $6,775.

W. H. Welby has filed an answer to the complaint of the Sunshine Water Heater Company, which seeks to recover $5,000 because of Welby's alleged refusal to purchase the right to manufacture the heater in the company in Alameda county, and also to manufacture the heater after material valued at $2,000 had been delivered to him.

Welby denies all the charges. He admits, however, that he agreed to go into partnership with George C. Hawley to form a corporation to be known as the California Sunlight Heater Company, with a capital of $5,000. But that he was induced to enter into that agreement by the fraudulent representations of Hawley. He also alleges that he discovered that the proposed water heater and the corporation were of no value whatever, and that the sale of the heaters would require fraudulent representation and that it would be a fraud and an imposition upon all persons purchasing them and that he was for this and other reasons that he refused to organize the company in question.

Judge Ogden has granted B. C. Hawes, as administrator of the estate of August Dreht, deceased, permission to sell at public auction realty belonging to the estate situated in Murray township.

A default has been entered against the defendants in the suit of the Alabama Savings Bank against C. W. Collins.

The final report and petition for distribution of David L. Morrill, executor of the will of Harriet H. Morrill, deceased, has been filed with the County Clerk. The report shows disbursements amounting to $173.09 and receipts in the sum of $23.33. The estate is valued at less than one thousand dollars.

A. R. Peterson has filed a petition to be discharged from his receivership of funds and property involved in the litigation between W. H. Hull, the Arizona copper king, and his much married spouse.

J. E. Nolan, D. S. Burwell and Fred Watt have been appointed as appraisers of the estate of Mary E. Marcoux, deceased.

Alice E. Durnell, administratrix of the estate of Frank F. Durnell, deceased, has filed her final report showing receipts in the sum of $304.95 and expenditures amounting to $333.93.

A Woman Wants

A quick, hot, bright fire to broil the steak, brown the toast, cook the mush and boil the coffee.

Coal Briquettes will make it.

And she wants a slow, even, penetrating fire to do the baking and heat the bath and laundry water.

COAL BRIQUETTES

Uniform in size, clean to handle, easy to ignite, bake nicely and make a beautiful fire.

To start the fire quickly use four or five broken Briquettes, as they ignite more readily than whole ones.

DON'T stir or poke them as you would coal; they don't need it. Keep your stove and flue clean; give them a perfect draft and LET THEM ALONE.

Give your order to your coal dealer—if he don't fill it notify Phone Main 79, Oakland, and it will be given to a dealer who will.
